Trina Turk:

Fashion designer Trina Turk has continued to support BCCA this year in our fashion forward efforts with the iGoPink Campaign. Ms. Turk's fashions were displayed at her BCCA Fashion Day Fundraiser in Los Angeles, California. Along with the fashion show, BCCA and Trina Turk have paired together to create trendy shirts for the iGoPink product line. Since 2010, Trina Turk has donated over $5,000 to BCCA, joining in the fight against breast cancer.
